

mySMFA

CALENDAR

CONTACT

Help

- About SMFA
- Admissions
- New Students
- Programs & Faculty
- Visitors
- Student Life
- Continuing Education
- Students
- News & Exhibitions
- Parents
- Galleries
- Alumni
- Support SMFA

Previous Page

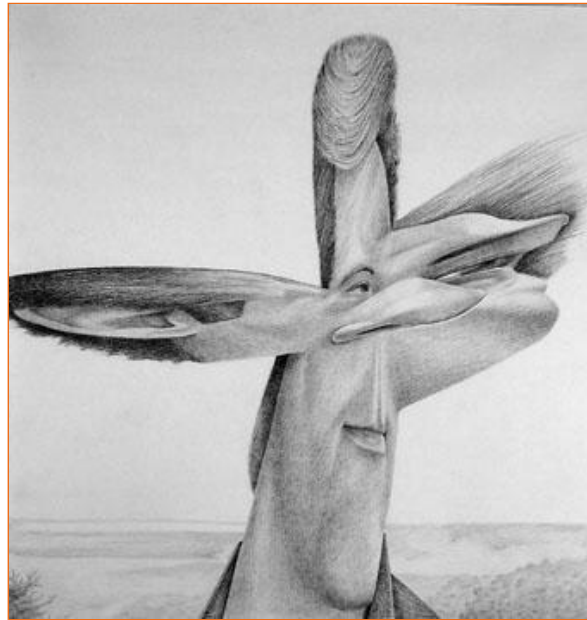

Home : Programs & Faculty : Faculty : Yaron Dotan

Faculty

- View All Faculty
- Faculty Gallery
- Faculty Handbook

Printer-friendly

Yaron Dotan

A Fiction, 2007. Graphite on paper.

FACULTY SEARCH

NAME SEARCH

SELECT AN AREA

CURRENT COURSES

Biography

Yaron Dotan (drawing) is a self-taught draftsman and MFA candidate at the Museum School/Tufts University. He also holds an MS in Education from St. John's University ('03) and a BA in English Literature/Philosophy from Queens College ('98). His work can be viewed at the Drawing Center in New York, where he is a member of their viewing program. Until recently, he was a high school guidance counselor and college advisor in Brooklyn, NY. In addition to teaching at the Museum School, Dotan teaches at the Brookline Arts Center (BAC).

©2008 School of the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston | 230 The Fenway | Boston | MA | 02115
 In partnership with Tufts and Northeastern universities and the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston
Home | Site Map | Contact

Photography © Tony Rinaldo